PREFACE.

The Registers of North Luffenham to the year 1812 are contained in four Volumes, as follows:—

Vol. I. of Parchment, measuring 17 in. by 6 in., and of 76 leaves, contains—

Baptisms, from 1572 (there are two Baptisms prior to 1572 entered without date) to 1747 inclusive, together with three entries of 1748.

Marriages, 1565 to 1749 inclusive. In many of these years no marriages are recorded.

Burials, 1565 to 2 Dec., 1749. The last thirteen in 1748-9 are entered in Vol. II. as well.

Vol. II. of Parchment, measuring 16 in. by 6 in., and of 30 leaves contains—

Baptisms, from 1748 to 26 Dec., 1812. 1355492

Marriages, from 1749 to 24 Dec., 1832.

Burials, from 17 May, 1748, to 26 Aug., 1812.

These two Vols. in fact record the Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials in North Luffenham between 1565 and 1812.

There are besides—

Vol. III. of Paper, paper cover, measuring 15 in. by 9 in. and of 16 leaves, having on the cover—with entries from 12 May, 1754, to 6 March, 1800.

MARRIAGE REGISTER BOOK

OF

NORTH LUFFENHAM

It has printed forms and spaces for names, dates, &c.

The marriage is signed by the contracting parties and their witnesses and vouched by the clergyman. All these entries are also in Vol. II.,

Vol. IV. of Parchment, bound, measuring 15 in. by 9 in. and of 40 leaves, being a continuation of Vol. III., containing Marriages from 3 Nov., 1800, to 1 June, 1812. Only the first seven pages are used, the rest are blank.

All these entries also are in Vol. II.

In Vol. I. on pages 1, 4, 28, 30, 72 and 76 are various Briefs and Memoranda. These Memoranda are not arranged in chronological order, but were entered wherever space invited. The most noteworthy of these are (1) Collections for the relief of those visited with the plague, A.D. 1665, (2) for those suffering from the Great Fire in London, A.D. 1666.

See also notices of Burial, February 21, 1642, and Aug. 24, 1645.

Communion appears to have been held on Christmas Day and the Sunday following, on Easter Day and the Sunday following, on Whit Sunday, and in the Autumn, most probably after the ingathering of the harvest. The amounts collected at Holy Communion as far as they are recorded seem to have been small. Rector Clerke plaintively records on April 4, 1675, "but two shillings whereof one shilling & sixpence by me and my two Daughters," and at the next Communion, April 11, "two shillings whereof one shilling by me and my third Daughter". Towards the end of the seventeenth century and at the beginning of the eighteenth contributions were on a more liberal scale. Easter, A.D. 1699, £3 19s. 4d.; Dec. 25th, 1699, £4 11s. 3d.; A.D. 1700, Easter, £4; Whit Sunday, £2 3s. 1d.; Sept. 29th, £2 11s. 1d.; A.D. 1701, Christmas, £3 11s. 8d.; Easter, 1702, £4 7s. 3d.

The number of Baptisms and Burials seems to have been much the same as we have at the present time, so that the diminution of the inhabitants in country villages can hardly be borne out in the case of North Luffenham.

Some noteworthy Christian names taken from the Registers—

Baptisms, Cibile (1573), Esay (1575), Bezaliell (1578), Repent (1586), Patience (1589), Audrey (1594), Trephosa (1595), Obedience (1602), Anthrea (1614), Obediah (1629), Harboria, Gamaliell (1632), Judah (daughter of Tho. Bate) (1646), Peninnah (1702), Babolina (1717).

Marriages, Prudence (1574), Seynte (1575), ffridswith (1624), Mortify (1694).

Burials, Antick (1675).

Double Christian names commence A.D. 1686 (Bapt.), Mallory-John. There are very few in the whole Register.

There are no surnames at the present time in the village corresponding to the early names in the Register, nor do any of our present surnames go back much beyond (if at all) A.D. 1700.

We have no record of any trades being carried on other than such as would be required in a country village, e.g., the carpenter, blacksmith, slater, tailor, &c.

There were two mansions in North Luffenham, one which passed through the Nevilles to the Harrington Family and then to the Noels (to Mr. Henry Noel) by purchase, and which stood in grounds at the west end of the church. There is no record of the burial of any of the Noel Family with the exception of Mr. Henry Noel, 1677; of his wife Susanna, 1640; of his daughter Susanna, 1639; and of "Elizabeth Wife of Henry Noel," 1681; nor of Baptisms after 1689.

The other mansion belonging to the Digbys, still stands at the east end of the church. The names of this family frequently recur in the Registers till we come to "buried, 23 May 1758 John Digby Esqr," and then their names appear no more. Both these properties now belong to the Earl of Ancaster.

There are entries also relating to the Barker family, ancient landowners in the parish.

The manorial history of this parish shows that the Advowson did not continue to be appendant to the Manor. It was granted by letters patent to Branthwaite and Bramley (Patent Roll, 31 Eliz., Part 7) and by them in the same year to Mr. Wm. Romney, who gave it to Emmanuel College, Cambridge, 1591.

Institutions to the Rectory of North Luffenham from A.D. 1236. The Institutions from that year down to A.D. 1541 (when Peterborough was made a Diocese) are transcribed from the Registers at Lincoln, the others have been copied from the Registers at Peterborough. See also p. 90, where will be found a list of the Rectors as given in the Register itself.
